The American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy

Special Presentations By

Michael Bowers MA, AAMFT Executive Director

Linda Rio MA LMFT, President of California AAMFT

Answering YOUR Questions:

The Future Of Marriage and Family Therapy

How Will Health Care Reform Effect MFTs?

What Changes Do MFTs Need To Be Bracing Ourselves For In The Future?

Are We Going To Be Getting Reimbursement Increase From Insurance Companies?

How Will The Incoming LPCs Effect Our Businesses? Should We Co-License?

What Are Our Lobbyists Working On In Washington?

Why Do We Need An AAMFT In Ventura County?

What Is Exactly the Difference Between AAMFT And CAMFT And How Can AAMFT and CAMFT Work Together?

These questions represent only a few of the many concerns that we have been hearing from people in Ventura County. Our careers are currently in an environment of change. MFTs need to have multiple sources of information with regard to trends that effect our profession both nationally and here in California. AAMFT is proud to announce the formation of a new local district that will provide an expanded opportunity for strengthening the science of Marriage and Family Therapy into the future. Please join us for this very special event. Thank you.
